

Restricted Judges Application - International

Conditions for NSBA International Judge Applications:

1. Must be at least 25.
2. Must be a current NSBA member in good standing member, application fee includes first year International membership.
3. Applicants must provide a copy of their judge credentials from one of NSBA's Recognized Equine Associations (AQHA, APHA, Etc.). If testing with approved REA, NSBA judge status is contingent upon applicant being accepted as an approved judge with the testing REA.
4. The Judges Committee will review all completed applications. Following the Judges Committee review, applicants will be notified as to whether they have been approved for judge status. Incomplete applications will not be reviewed by the Judges Committee.
5. If you are approved for judging status, your name will be added to the permanent judges list for International Judges. It will be mandatory to complete a recertification session and rule book exam to maintain status as a NSBA Judge.

Requirements for application:

1. $50 application fee (non-refundable) includes one year of International membership.
2. A recent head and shoulder photo in judging attire (NOTE: Your application will be considered incomplete without a photo).
